9 Go to the end of the rue des Douves and enter the village through the Porte Saint-Martin to go to the rue du Couvent. Observe the vineyards near the King's Tower. The vines grow through the limestone to produce grapes. Link the images corresponding to the seasons of the vine's growth. What stage are we at today? If it is open, you can visit the exhibition at the Maison du Vin at the end of the rue des Ecoles. It could help you...

The buds appear. Then the leaves grow and flowers appear. These flowers will create the future bunches of grapes. This season is: $S _ _ G$

The bunches grow larger and change colour. This season is: S _____ R.

The grapes are ripe: they are picked during the harvest. Then the vine goes back to sleep and the leaves fall down. This season is: A _____ N.

The vine "sleeps". It is time to prune it. This season is: W

10 Now find the French name of the area listed as a World Heritage Site by the UNESCO with its 8 villages. Write the clues you have found down below...

To help you find the mystery word above, look for this sign on the place Pierre Meyrat and you might find a clue hidden nearby...

Robin understands his "hillside" better: a region where vines have been cultivated to make wine for a very long time. The 8 villages of the Jurisdiction of Saint-Emilion have been ruled by the Jurade for more than 800 years. Today, nature and the buildings, which Men have built to live and produce wine, create living landscapes that we must protect.

If you wish, we can email you the answers. Write to us: accueil@saint-emilion-tourisme.com In several tourist sites in the Gironde area, have fun with Robin! To discover these places, go to: www.surlespistesderobin.com

Saint-Emilion Tourisme - Place des Créneaux - 33330 Saint-Émilion +33 (0)5 57 55 28 28 - accueil@saint-emilion.tourisme.com - www.saint-emilion-tourisme.com

Discovering the Unesco World Heritage Landscapes of Saint-Émilion

Hello!

My name is Robin! I am proud of the pretty "hillsides" as we call them here in Saint-Émilion! I live in the village of Saint-Émilion. My parents work in the vineyard and make wine. In 1999, I was not even born yet, the landscape I know so well was listed as World Heritage by the UNESCO. People from all over France but also from all over the world come to my house... And I would like to understand why!

Now it's your turn! Follow Robin's trail... Keep your eyes peeled! He has left you a few riddles to discover the richness of Saint-Émilion's landscapes. Answering the following questions and riddles, collect clues and find the mystery word at the end. Let's go then!

1 In Saint-Émilion, nature, as well as monuments, deserves to be considered as heritage. We must take good care of it, as men have worked very hard before to preserve it! Go next to the bell tower and find a representation of a temple that protects our heritage!

Answer:

2 Now, go to the "Cloître des Cordeliers" via "rue des Girondins". On the "place Cap du Pont", have a look over the village and its two towers. Notice how one tower is square. It was built in the 13th century and is called the King's Tower. It is where the City Council met in the Middle Ages to take important decisions. Discover the name of this City Council:

Answer: U R A D E

The first letter is the same as the sticky and fruity paste you spread on your bread!

On your right, you can see the bell tower that dominates the whole town and the surrounding vineyards. It can be seen and heard from far away, guiding pilgrims through the city. There have been 5 different religious groups in the city to welcome these travelers. Find behind you the nickname given to the Franciscans who prayed in the church you see:

Answer: LES C

____ __ E R S

Before they can bottle the wine, men work hard in the vineyards. In the Middle Ages, those winemakers were called "vinetiers". Take "rue de la porte Brunet" and go through "porte Brunet". You reach "place du Grand Vinetier". Look at the amazing view on your right! Find out the name of the landscape you see answering this cross-word puzzle:

4 Thanks to this rebus, guess the name of the river that flows down in the valley and far from the village: + DORGNF DOGNE Answer: T H E Go down the hillside by the grassy path on the right and follow the vines. This path runs along the old ramparts that protected the town. In the Middle Ages, there were many mills along this road. Draw one! 5 Go up the rue de la Madeleine. At the top of the hill, you arrive at the entrance of a prestigious winery (also called « château » in French). What is its name? Answer: A ___ ___ 6 Originally, it is the name of a 4th century poet who wrote about the vineyards of Saint-Émilion. Observe the landscape, see how it is organised. With the words bellow, write your own poem! RIVER - PLATEAU - SLOPE - VALLEY On a sunny morning, I was leaving the _____ . Walking by the _____ where the boats are moored, I took a path to climb the _____ . To pick grapes ripened in the sun on the _____. 7 Under your feet, miles of tunnels create a huge underground maze. Take the pedestrian alley and reach "rue des douves" to see one of the entrances to these old guarries. Blocks of stone were extracted from the guarries to build houses. Can you find the name of this stone? _____S _____ 8 Look at this old photo of the rue des Douves. More than 100 years ago, people lived in TROGLODYTE houses, which means "dug in the rock". What can you see in front of the houses? Compare this picture with what you see today. Answer: AG ΕN